2. [] asked for time on your calendar on Wednesday for him, Mr. Lansdale, and Mr. Eisenbeiss to see you regarding a problem with the ICRC. I gave him 2:30 on Wednesday, 13 December.

3. A lunch with IRS officers has been set for 12:00 on Monday, 18 December.

4. Elizabeth asked if you were free for lunch on Tuesday, 19 December. I replied that you did have plans but that they could be changed (- your lunch was with Paul Walsh.), and she requested that I do so and set aside the 19th. When I queried as to whom you would be lunching with, she replied, "Me." I believe she plans to talk with you about it, but it's an annual Christmas luncheon she has. I shall reschedule Paul Walsh for the week after Christmas.
